

THE james k. burk

THE james k. burk remembers when dirt was new. He's seen the elephant, roped the goat, and, well, you know. His first novel, HIGH RAGE is now a collectors' item but you can still get a new copy of his second, HOME IS THE HUNTER as half of Double Dog #3, as well as his chapbooks, STRANGE TWISTS OF FATE and ILLUSIONS OF SANITY at the Yard Dog booth. He's also got stories in two of the BUBBAS OF THE APOCALYPSE anthologies. He's presently getting ready to market a new novel, THE TWELVE.

Be warned. He usually carries pictures of his children and grandchildren, and he's not afraid to use them.
